CHARDONNAY/WHITE BURGUNDY

Le Drunk Rooster, Languedoc 2007 Simple, clean, affordable; this is what a good representaion of unoaked chardonnay should be.	Bottle: $18	Take Home: $13
Macon-Solutre, Domaine des Gerbeaux, 2007 Beautiful chardonnay; all the touches of an excellent boutique wine and it’s biodynamic! Wine Advocete Rating: 89	Bottle: $32	Take Home: $19
Lafond, Santa Rita Hills, 2006 “Ripe and intense, with rich fig, melon, spice and mineral notes that give this vibrancy and complexity. Ends with a repeat of the flavor themes.” Wine Spectator Rating: 88	Bottle: $34	Take Home: $20
Rully 1er Cru, Miex Cadot, J.M. Boillot 2006	Bottle: $42	Take Home: $30
Ramey, Sonoma 2004/2005 Wine Advocate Rating: 89 Wine Spectator Rating:91	Bottle: $54	Take Home: $30
Porter Bass, Russian River, 2006 My favorite chardonnay on the list.This unorthodox wine has it all, a little oak, butter, minerality, fantastic fruit, and yet is totally different than any other chard I have had.	Bottle: $72	Take Home: $51
Lewis, Sonoma Coast 2006/2007 “A rich, opulent style, this is full-blown, with a bold yet elegant mix of ripe fig, pear, citrus and melon flavors, “ending with hints of mineral and butterscotch. Drink now through 2012. 900 cases made.” Wine Spectator Rating:93	Bottle: $98	Take Home: $NA
Chateau Boswell, Dutton Ranch, Russian River 2005 Spectacular!! Again, it seems as if anything wine maker Luc Morlet touches is the cream of the crop.	Bottle: $138	Take Home: $NA
Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru, Domaine Bachelet-Monnot 2005 I have learned why the wines of Burgundy are so highly sought after. Efforts like this where the fruit, oak and acidity are in such perfect harmony are simply rare to find.	Bottle: $140	Take Home: $NA

PINOT NOIR/BURGUNDY

Gerard Bertrand, Reserve Speciale 2006	Bottle: $26	Take Home: $13
Montinore Estate, Willamette Valley, 2007	Bottle: $28	Take Home: $23
Hendry, Napa 2005 This pinot is not rated, but I am a big fan of Hendry's wines. They are subtle and change nicely over the course of a meal.	Bottle: $48	Take Home: $38
Copain, "Tous Ensemble", Anderson Valley 2007 "Young, tight and balanced, with ripe plum and black cherry fruit that's tight yet supple, with hints of anise and pebble." Wine Spectator Rating: 88	Bottle: $54	Take Home: $40
Maranet, Russian River Valley 2006 Ripe, tasty fruit and enough body to handle red meat. This pinot is a gem.	Bottle: $64	Take Home: $44
Londer Vineyards, Estate, Anderson Valley 2005 I haven't had anyone taste this pinot without recognizing its beauty. Just a great bottle that hits all the right notes. Wine Spectator Rating: 92	Bottle: $74	Take Home: $54
Flowers, Sonoma Coast, 2007 Consistently one of my favorite pinot makers, the Flowers name has become synonymous with quality. This wine exhibits great depth and a smooth lingering finish.	Bottle: $95	Take Home: NA
Bjornstad, Hellenthal Vineyard, Sonoma 2006 Greg Bjornstad came to fame making the Flowers pinot, now he makes his own. This is a big, brooding wine that has tremendous complexity and depth. Wine Advocate Rating: 89 Wine Spectator Rating: 90	Bottle: $110	Take Home: NA
Gevrey-Chambertin, Domaine Maume 2005 A seductive pinot noir that has as long a finish as any pinot I have tasted. Sip it slowly and enjoy the pleasure only a fine pinot can bring.	Bottle: $110	Take Home: NA
Morlet, Coteaux Nobles, Sonoma Coast 2006 Wine Advocate Rating: 93	Bottle: $150	Take Home: NA

Espelt, Saulo, Garnacha & Carinena 2005 Wine Advocate Rating: 88	Bottle: $26	Take Home: $13
Coteaux Varois en Provence, Chateau Des Annibals, Fess-Mathieux 2005 My new favorite on the list; this wine comes from a family estate from 1772. It has charm, depth, and 3 days after being open is even better than the first sip!	Bottle: $28	Take Home: $18
BenMarco, Malbec, Mendoza 2006 Wine Advocate Rating: 91+ Wine Spectator Rating: 90	Bottle: $28	Take Home: $21
Plungerhead, Zinfandel, Dry Creek Valley 2005	Bottle: $32	Take Home: $21
Tandem, Peloton Red Wine 2005 Carignan, Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Syrah, Zinfandel, Sangiovese, Gewurztraminer, and Pinot Meunier make up this tasty blend. Tandem is a great winemaker from California, and this is a great value. This is the kind of wine that's hard to stop at 1 bottle.	Bottle: $36	Take Home: $30
Orlando Abrigo, Nebbiolo, Piedmont 2005 Wine Spectator Rating: 87	Bottle: $38	Take Home: $28
Avignonesi, Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, 2005 Wine Advocate Rating: 88 Wine Spectator Rating: 87	Bottle: $42	Take Home: $36

OLD WORLD / ECCLECTIC

Orin Swift, "The Prisoner", Napa 2006 Wine Spectator Rating: 91	Bottle: $54	Take Home: NA
Petrolo, Torrione IGT, Sangiovese, 2005 Wine Advocate Rating: 90	Bottle: $60	Take Home: $39
La Rioja Alta, Vina Ardanza, Reserva 2000 Wine Advocate Rating: 90	Bottle: $62	Take Home: $NA
Buoncristiani "OPC", 2003 36% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Syrah, 17% Merlot, 13% Malbec make up a Claret from 4 brothers that Wine-Spectator named rising stars of Napa Cabernet. This is a great bottle if you plan to sit for while and enjoy your evening.	Bottle: $64	Take Home: $48
La Valentina Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, "Binomio" 2003 Wine Advocate Rating: 92	Bottle: $70	Take Home: NA
Retro Cellars, Petit Sirah, Howell Mountain 2004 This stuff is awesome. The labels from the famous cab maker Randy Dunn's son so one shouldn't expect anything less. This is the best wine on our list to have with a big ribeye. It has the body and the fruit to stand up to the meat.	Bottle: $72	Take Home: NA
Gamba, Zinfandel, Moratto Vineyard, Russian River Valley 2006 About as good as Zin gets. These are old Zin vines planted in 1920, giving this wine tremendous depth.	Bottle: $78	Take Home: NA
Quintessa Proprietary Red Wine, 2003 Wine Spectator Rating: 87	Bottle: $164	Take Home: NA
Opus One, Napa 2003 Aromas of blackberry, plum, hazelnut and cherries; this soft silky wine is as good as advertised. Wine Spectator Rating: 87	Bottle: $220	Take Home: $180

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Altosur, Argentina 2007	Bottle: $20	Take Home:$10
